

Sample WHYY-TV Underwriting Credits

:30

Supporting WHYY, the 44th Annual Philadelphia Antiques Show, April 9th through 12th at the 33rd Street Armory in Philadelphia.

National dealers feature antiques for purchase. A special loan exhibit highlights 19th Century Gothic Revival Furniture from Philadelphia. Proceeds benefit the University of Pennsylvania Health System. The Philadelphia Antiques Show, April 9th through 12th. 215-387-3500 or phila antiques dot com.

Kimmel Center Presents is a proud supporter of WHYY. Tickets are now available for Cantors: A Faith in Song on Sunday, December 19th at 7:30 p.m. Three cantors, Alberto Mizrahi, Naftali Herstik and Benzion Miller, perform an evening of popular and religious Jewish songs in Verizon Hall. For information on Cantors: A Faith in Song, 215-893-1999 or Kimmel Center dot org.

An evening with Andrea Bocelli in a new show. Accompanied by the Hartford Symphony Orchestra conducted by Steven Mercurio. Andrea Bocelli. Sunday April 3rd at the Wachovia Center. Tickets available at TicketMaster or the Wachovia Center Box Office or by phone 215-336-2000. (Visual support statement on screen.)

:15

Supporting WHYY, the Philadelphia Orchestra, presenting the fourth annual Absolutely Mozart Festival, June 24th to the 30th at the Kimmel Center. Featuring Mozart's piano concertos with conductor Peter Oundjian. For tickets, 215-893-1999 or phil orch dot org.

Supporting WHYY, AT&T, now offering consumers phone calling over the Internet with AT&T Call Vantage Service. 1-866-816-3815 or w-w-w dot A-T-T dot com slash Call Vantage.

Center for Literacy supports WHYY, bringing NPR's Selected Shorts to the city for a live performance with Barbara Barrie, Keir Dullea and Isaiah Sheffer, November 9th, 7 p.m. at Loews Hotel Philadelphia. Details online at Center for Literacy dot org.

The Royal Bank of Scotland Group. From Tokyo to Paris. From London to New York. Everywhere around the world we help you make it happen. RBS. The Royal Bank of Scotland Group. (Visual support statement on screen.)

