

Before & Below I-95: Archeological and Historical Discoveries from the I-95 Girard Avenue Interchange Project

Celebrate fascinating riverfront findings.
A free public event, perfect for the entire family!

URS Senior Archeologist, Douglas Mooney and other experts will share exciting archeological and historical findings from PennDOT's I-95 Girard Avenue Interchange Improvement Project.

Experience the Philadelphia Riverwards' history with treasures from the past through engaging stories, video, photos and actual artifacts from the digs. Learn about Gunner's Run – the intact canal under Aramingo Avenue and Indian settlements from 4000 BC that lie just beneath your feet.

Tuesday, November 15, 2011 from 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Kensington High School for the Creative and Performing Arts.
1901 N. Front Street, Philadelphia, PA 19122.

The event entrance is across from Berks Street SEPTA Station, with convenient transit via the Market-Frankford Line and SEPTA buses 3, 5, 25, 57 and 89. Free off-street parking is available.

Light refreshments will be served. ADA accessible.

For PennDOT I-95 info: www.95revive.com or www.95sustain.com

For URS: www.urs-burlington.com

For CDAG: <http://centraldelawareadvocacygroup.wordpress.com>

For more info: Contact Laura Lanza, 215-990-3196 or lanza.cdag@gmail.com